Location: Student Assistance Services Corporation
660 White Plains Road, Tarrytown, NY 10591, (914) 332-1300

This presentation will provide an update on the science, research, policy and practice implications of cannabidiol (CBD). Participants will learn about the various types of cannabinoids and the distinction between THC and CBD. CBD specific information will be provided including: CBD derived from hemp vs. CBD derived from marijuana; current status of FDA regulation of CBD; and research-based risks and benefits of CBD.

Trainer: Gregory Bunt, MD, Assistant Clinical Professor of Psychiatry, NYU Medical School; Medical Dir. Samaritan Village; Past President of the NY Society of Addiction Medicine & of the International Society of Addiction Medicine.

Go to www.sascorp.org to register for any of our summer trainings (click the “New Training Information” link and then click the “Online Registration” button). Or fax the registration form below to 914-366-8826. To receive CEUs you must arrive on time and attend the entire workshop. No partial credit.

Space is limited. No confirmations will be mailed.
